The person who neglects to provide for a "Rainy Day", neglects the first duty. Every practical thinking man realizes that it is a duty he owes to himself and his family to save a portion, however small of his earnings. A saving account opened early in life and systematically kept up, will in time afford the means to grasp business opportunities. It will help to buy a home, provide in time of sickness and insure a competency and the comforts of life in old age. For Children no better or acceptable present could be made to a child than a savings account where the money is absolutely safe. "No boy ever became great as a man who did not in youth learn to save money."

ONE MORE REQUEST

Tulloch Again Asked to Substantiate Alleged Assertions.

PAYNE'S STATEMENT

Postmaster General Makes Public a Letter Making a Sworn Request in Regard to Matters Connected With the Case.

Washington, May 13.—Postmaster General Payne has made public a letter making a second request on S. W. Tulloch, former cashier of the Washington city postoffice, who is alleged to have charged irregularities in the service for information in substantiation of his charges. The letter is addressed to Mr. Bristow, fourth assistant postmaster general, and says:

"Some time since there appeared an interview with Mr. S. W. Tulloch, formerly cashier of the Washington city postoffice, which reflected on the official conduct of certain persons of high positions in the government service and others holding office. On the 5th instant I wrote Mr. Tulloch, stating that I should be pleased to receive from him any statement confirmatory of the charges. This he has failed to furnish. I therefore request that you will call upon Mr. Tulloch and ask him to give you any statement which he is willing to make in writing accompanied by any papers, documents or evidence confirmatory of the charges which he has made to the end that they may be inquired into, and if it is found that any irregularities exist that may be corrected."

The postmaster general says Mr. Tulloch has promised to submit a statement Friday. He says there is no intention of furnishing Mr. Tulloch with copies of replies from those whom the postmaster general addressed regarding Mr. Tulloch's charges.

TEXAS BANKERS.

They Assemble in Annual Session With a Large Attendance.

Sherman, Tex., May 13.—The Texas Bankers' association meet in annual session Tuesday at Woodlake Casino, midway between this city and Denison. A large audience was present at the opening session. In the absence of Hon. J. W. Blake, Dr. John Grant delivered the address of welcome in behalf of the people of Sherman.

The address of welcome in behalf of the people of Denison was delivered by C. S. Cobb of that city.

T. W. Slack of Fort Worth responded to both addresses.

Report of Secretary Butler followed. A letter from ex-Secretary of the Treasury Gage was read. The epistle dealt with the money supply of the United States, in which he, among other things, spoke of a credit currency, saying such is required in the interest of the entire country.

A letter from National Controller Dawes relating to elasticity in credits, was also read.

Large Deal Made.

Colorado, Tex., May 13.—Judge Ed J. Hammer of this city has returned from Dallas, where he accompanied Pete Scroggin to close a big ranch and cattle deal. Acting for the firm of Scroggin & Brown of Kent county, they sold to A. C. Cairns of Dallas, 17,042 acres of patented land off the east end of Scroggin & Brown's Kent county pasture, at $2.50 per acre. The lease on 28 sections of railroad land was thrown in. Included in the deal also were 1000 cows and calves at $26, and 1000 yearling steers at $16 around, the total consideration being a little above $50,000.

Error in Scalp Bounty Bill.

Austin, May 13.—The discovery was made that an error was made in enrolling the scalp bounty bill passed by the legislature at its regular session. The authors of the bill were Messrs. Hudspeth and Gray. One of its provisions provided that the bounty should be paid by the respective counties for each coyote, wolf, wildcat or catamount killed. The "22" is left out of the enrolled bill and the law reads "50c" as the amount of the bounty to be paid for killing these animals.

Bitten by a Mad Dog.

Texarkana, Tex., May 13.—J. W. Griffin of the College Hill suburb was bitten by a mad dog. He had the wound cauterized by a physician at once, but is not satisfied and is seeking far and near for a madstone. He heard of one stone some thirty miles distant, and will go to it and try its virtues.

Fierce Forest Fires.

Hagerstown, Md., May 13.—South mountain from Rixville to Ruena Vista is being swept by a fierce forest fire. Hundreds of acres of fine timber have been destroyed and many inhabitants driven to the towns in the valley. Forces of men are fighting the fire, but not making much headway.

Condition of Wheat.

Washington, May 13.—The weekly crop report of the weather bureau says in part: An improvement in condition of winter wheat is reported from Oklahoma, Texas and Ohio, but the crop has suffered deterioration in Kentucky and Missouri.

VALPARAISO VIOLENCE

Strikers at That Place Seem Masters of Situation.

FIGHT UPON STREETS

Things Were Rendered So Warm For the Police That They Had to Seek Refuge Within the Soldiers' Barracks.

New York, May 13.—This city is in the possession of the striking dock laborers, cables a Valparaiso correspondent of the Herald. One prominent man has been killed, six wounded and fifty dead or dying. A battle has taken place in the streets of the city in which the police were driven to the barracks by the superior force of the strikers. Greater bloodshed is anticipated.

A mob surrounded the office of El Mercurio and threatened to sack and burn the establishment. One thousand striking men are marching on Admiral Mont's private house, swearing vengeance on the occupants and destruction of the building. The authorities seem powerless to check the mob, and owing to the bitter feeling against the police it has been decided to keep them in the barracks rather than further excite the strikers by an ineffectual attempt to quell them. Owing to the intense confusion it is impossible to ascertain the exact number of dead or the amount of damage done.

Clash With the Police.

Santiago de Chile, May 13.—Strike of dock laborers at Valparaiso is becoming more serious. The strikers after setting fire to the quay, as well as to the office of the South American Steam Ship company, had a number of encounters with the police, during which ten persons were killed and 200 injured. A detachment of 3000 troops has been dispatched to Valparaiso to quell the disorders. The government refused all offers to compromise the difficulties and it is determined to adopt the sternest measures to restore order.

STUBBORN FIGHT.

Battle Suspended in Order to Bury Three Hundred Dead.

Madrid, May 13.—A dispatch from Ceuta, Morocco, announces the Tribesmen who attacked Tetuan Monday, were repulsed. They stubbornly fought their way through the suburbs to the foot walls, but the imperial troops eventually regained their lost positions and run off the rebels with heavy losses on both sides.

A later dispatch from Ceuta says Currio, who arrived there by sea from Tetuan, states the battle suspended in order to allow the opposing forces to bury their dead numbering 300. Many heads were displayed on the wall of Tetuan, with still three days' supply of ammunition.

Advices from Tangier announce imperial forces routed the rebel mountaineers near Fez, inflicting great losses on them.

Was Feeling Strong.

Victoria, B. C., May 13.—According to advices received by the Steamer Empress of India, Japanese arsenals were being worked day and night, provisions were being concentrated, coal stored on Tsipina Island and on all sides it was evident that Japan, doubting the extent of Russia's withdrawal from Manchria, was preparing for war. The Hon. Sidney Fisher, Canadian minister of agriculture, who was one of the passengers by the steamer, and who had been in close touch with Japanese royalty and officials says the war feeling in Japan is very strong and war like preparing were in view.

LADY BEATEN.

She Was Waylaid and So Badly Hurt Recovery Is Doubtful.

Waterbury, Conn., May 13.—Miss Margaret Crane of this city has been waylaid and so severely beaten about the head that her condition is pronounced critical. She left her home early in the evening to attend a meeting of the singing society. Early next morning she was found in a house on School street with her face bruised and covered with blood. Later she was taken home. The motive for the crime is believed to have been robbery, as her purse was missing when she was found. She is suffering from concussion of the brain and has not recovered consciousness sufficiently to explain the mystery. There is practically no clue to her assailant.

Spotted fever has broken out among the 1200 men aboard the receiving ships Minneapolis and Puritan at League Island navy yard.

Because the congregation of the Second United Presbyterian church of Pittsburg, Pa., voted to install an organ Pastor Littell resigned.

Two passenger trains on the Mohawk and Malone railway collided fifty miles north of Utica, N. Y. Four persons were killed and twelve others injured.

In a fracas over a dice game near Louisville, Ky., William Cundiff shot and killed his stepbrother, Thomas Bishop, and Cundiff's father seriously stabbed his nephew, Luther Hart.

The Cuero military company has been dropped from the state militia for failure to come up to the proper military standard.

Surrounding towns are beginning to make the annual spring cleaning out of the vagrant element. There are apparently some mighty good cotton choppers loafing around Bryan.

There is patriotism if nothing else away down in Atascosa county. Capt. F. Snyder has mustered up a company of fifteen men from the sand stretches of that South Texas county and writes General Fred Grant at San Antonio for "uniforms and buttons," and reports for duty for the first war that comes along.

Burleson county is said to be on the eve of a hot prohibition campaign. The commissioners' court of that county is in session and a petition has been presented asking that an election be ordered. The fight is on in Grimes and Robertson counties and Leon and Madison are dry. Brazos, it will be seen, is pretty well surrounded.

county. These roads are called main thoroughfares.

This work should commence at county seat, on one main thoroughfare, and worked out several miles. The distance to be worked should be governed by the force you have and the time it would require to do the work. Then move on the nearest important thoroughfare and work back to county seat. Then move on first road worked and work from county seat in opposite direction, and so on until all main thoroughfares are worked about the same distance from county seat. Then return to first road and work out as before, and so on until all the main thoroughfares are completed, not losing sight, however, of repairing said roads when necessary. Then the less important roads could be considered.

The method by which this system is worked on public roads to attain better results and meet with general approval in the end from the people, would be not to run it through politics, and not jump from one end of the county to another and work a little here and a little there, but work them in a purely business manner, regardless of politics. To do this properly the management should be under the supervision of a general supervisor. He should be a man thoroughly competent to carry on the work in a businesslike manner.

There is another very important feature about the convict system working on roads, and that is a portable prison, and also a portable prison and dining-room combined, which would take off a great deal of annoyance and loss of time in moving camps. The prison would be more secure against escapes. The convicts, of course, would have to be chained in the prison the same as they are now, but should they cut the chain they would then have to break out of the prison, which would create more or less noise and give the alarm of their trying to escape.

These prisons are constructed so as to be comfortable in winter and cool and pleasant in summer. I would like to call the present management's attention to this proposition and also the others, or a part, or as much as they would feel justifiable or advisable to consider with a view of purchasing. I advocate and have always advocated ever since I have been in charge of the business, to increase the working facilities, as more teams, tools and better tools so I could do more and better work.

Cranks and chronic kickers: This is a subject I thought I would not mention, but I want them to know that I am aware of their valuable existence, and that I am equal to the occasion. I consider that they are necessary evils and valuable adjuncts in every vocation of life and civilization, as it is a natural and fixed law for everything to have their opposing forces, and from that point I note my success. Therefore, without resistance I would not feel that I was master of the situation.

I shall continue to do my duty in the future as I have in the past, with but the one end in view, to please, myself first, last and all the time, and I shall not give nor ask their advice, as their advice would not be worth considering. I want them to kick more and harder and at longer range, thereby I will profit much.

Moral: Drink less and better whiskey, stay at home and attend to your own affairs more and keep your nose out of other people's business and your bank accounts will be larger and you will have more friends.

BACK TO LIFE.

A New York Physician Uses a System on the Massage Order.

New York, May 13.—A physician of this city, claims to have made the discovery that a patient can be massaged back to life. He announced this method of resuscitation at a recent meeting of the New York Academy of Medicine. The doctor had been experimenting along this line for a year or more on dogs, and many cases have been entirely successful. In one case, a dog, the heart of which had stopped beating for about one-quarter of an hour, was revived by the treatment and lived for several hours afterwards. The method is to make a small incision between the ribs without cutting the bone. The fingers are thrust into the opening behind the heart. A few gentle pressures on the heart are all that is required, it is claimed, to revive the circulation. In conjunction with this process is artificial respiration produced with a pump. A tube is attached to the pump and inserted into the patient's throat as far as the wind pipe.

HEAD TAX PAYABLE.

The Ruling of Immigration Will Have a Marked Effect at El Paso.

El Paso, Tex., May 13.—By the ruling of the commissioner of general immigration received here, all emigrants coming into the United States must pay $2 head tax regardless of means of transportation. This will apply to those who travel on the street cars between Juarez and El Paso, and affects numbers who daily transact business between the two places. Among them is the German consul to Juarez, who necessarily makes two or more trips a day.

Sensational Advance.

New York, May 13.—Tremendous excitement prevailed on the cotton market as a result of a sensational advance in Liverpool, which came about 10 to 16 points higher than had been expected. Local market started 18 to 27 points higher on near months and 4 to 14 on late months under the rush of shorts to cover.

Conductors Wanted.

Kansas City, May 13.—The free labor bureau has an order from St. Paul for 100 railroad conductors to run freight and passenger trains on the Great Northern railroad, but there are no applicants for the positions. Experience is not necessary, the order says, but capable men wanted. Salary offered is $140 a month.

More Oil Wells.

Guthrie, Okla., May 13.—The third oil well at Granite, Okla., has been brought in at a depth of 100 feet. When oil was struck a stream 180 feet high was thrown into the air and the earth for 300 feet in every direction was saturated. Another successful well has been completed at Blackwell, oil being struck at a depth of 400 feet.

Sues Her Father.

Brussels, May 13.—The report that Countess Lonyay has brought suit against her father, King Leopold, has been confirmed. The countess claims her share of the estate of her mother, Queen Marie Henrietta, should be $3,400,000 instead of $120,000, offered by King Leopold.

Denied and Discredited.

St. Petersburg, May 13.—A report published in the United States of the massacre of Jews similar to one which took place recently at Kisheneff, the capital of Bessarabia, having occurred at Tirospol, seven miles from Kisheneff, is officially denied and universally discredited.

Found Much Dynamite.

Salonica, May 13.—The police have unearthed 700 pounds of dynamite and quantities of gun powder secreted by the revolutionists.

Twice Struck by Lightning.

Big Springs, Tex., May 13.—J. B. Rigdon, cook for Currie & Cushing's cow outfit, was struck by lightning during a thunderstorm fifteen miles south of this place. The lightning tore away the front part of his hat and split his nose open almost from one end to the other, knocking him off a barrel of water which he had on his wagon at the time. He soon recovered consciousness. About a year ago he was also struck by lightning.

AUTOMOBILE RACES.

Fifty-Eight Contestants Going from Paris to Madrid.

Paris, May 14.—The Paris-Madrid automobile races were inaugurated yesterday with fifty-five contestants in the tourist class starting from the Automobile Club of France on Place de la Concorde, between 7 a. m. and noon. Recent rains promised heavy roads, reports from Madrid stating some stretches are in a dangerous condition and requiring great caution.

The start was made in fine weather.
Place de la Concorde presented a gay appearance, being thronged with participants in the contest and hundreds of others intending to follow racers over the first stretch. The first run was from Paris to Piques, a distance of 221 kilometers. The machines enter Spain May 20, and reach Madrid May 26. A number of Americans viewed the start and several Americans are among the participating.
"Tod" Sloan piloted a way ahead of the racers. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., who entered for the speed test, will start later, but he was a passenger in Four-nier's car.

HARD ON SUITORS.

After They Fought With Clubs for Her
She Wedded Another.

Morristown, N. J., May 13.—As the result of a duel fought at Wharton over Rosa Latzky, an eighteen-year-old Hungarian girl, who told her suitors that they would have to fight for her, Henry Waldeeso is in the hospital in a badly damaged condition. Rosa helped to arrange the duel, which was to take place with clubs in the presence of no witnesses save Rosa and a young man whom she asked to accompany her to the place. She watched her admirers club each other with their clubs until neither could stand, and then she departed with her friend, and they were married by a justice of the peace.

The duellists were found by mine employees both unconscious and Waldeeso so badly bruised that he was brought to the hospital.

DETAILS AWFUL.

Massacre of the Jews Described as Being Something Dreadful.

St. Petersburg, May 13.—Additional details of the Kisheneff massacre of the Jews are printed here daily. Correspondents give the number of victims thus far buried in the Jewish cemetery at forty-four and say that thirty-four persons are seriously wounded and still in the Jewish hospital. Horrors reported scarcely bear repetition. In one instance spikes were driven through a woman's head into the floor and cases of bodily mutilation have been authenticated. About 800 to 1000 persons were arrested, an energetic official having been sent from Odessa to deal with the situation.
Apathy of local authorities during the two days of rapine and murder appears to have been fully established.

Murder Mystery.

Pittsburg, May 13.—The finding of the body of an unknown man floating in the Monongahela river will probably develop a murder mystery. A handkerchief had been forced into the man's mouth, and there were several wounds on the back of the head. The body is that of a man about sixty years old, well dressed, and has the appearance of being above the class of people usually frequenting the water front.
There is nothing on the body that in any way lead to identification.

Forty Non-Union Men Arrive.

Mobile, Ala., May 13.—A local freight train left manned by non-union men, brought to Mobile to take the places of the strikers. All passenger trains have been leaving on schedule time. During the past two days forty non-union men brought here by the railroad company and a majority of them have gone to work. Eighteen arrived from Chicago. Railroad officials say they will have all the trains running as usual in a short time. No violence of any kind has occurred at Mobile and none has been reported from anywhere on the line.

Took Carboic Acid.

New York, May 13.—A woman about forty years of age, believed to be Mrs.
Claude Guernsey of Philadelphia, died from the effects of carboic acid taken with suicidal intent at Hotel Nayarre.
A bottle with a Pittsburg label lay on the floor in her room. John B. Walker of this city, who was at the hotel with her, was held by the police as a suspicious person. Bruises were found on her arms.

First Westfield Wreck Case.

Freehold, N. J., May 13.—In his suit for $25,000 damages brought by Chas.
Herbert against former State Senator Terhune and others, whom the plaintiff accused of heading a vigilance committee which strung him up in an endeavor to make him confess to incendiarism, the jury has brought in a verdict for the defendants. No one denied the hanging, but all denied guilty knowledge.

Rich by Inheritance.

Victoria, B. C., May 13.—News has been received by the local miners that Caesar Bettarne, who worked at Nana-mo for twenty-two years and recently went to work at the Washington mines has inherited three million francs as a result of the death of his brother, who was a rich bishop of Constantinople.

Expelled Priests Arrive.

New York, May 13.—On the Spanish steamer Manuel Calvo, which has arrived here from Spanish ports were a number of priests expelled from France. They are going to Mexico to act as instructors in schools.

Pomeroy Again Chosen.

New York, May 13.—At a special meeting of the newly elected board of governors of the New York stock exchange, H. K. Pomeroy was re-elected vice-president of the board.

THE MODERN SALESMAN.

He Realizes the Necessity For Correct Dress in Business.

It has become the unwritten but none the less stringent law that young men shall dress well and neatly during business hours. In many of the large banks and financial institutions none of the clerks is permitted to go coatless, and in the mercantile establishments where salesmen are employed "loud" attire is actually discouraged. The old time salesman gloried in his flamboyant cravats and shirts, his diamonds and his peculiar clothes. His capital in trade consisted of a flashy appearance, vulgar stories, a constitution that would stand intoxicating liquor and an unlimited amount of cheek. He did not have to know anything about the goods he sold, except in a general way. He slapped men on the back, took them out to dinner, got drunk with them and then booked their orders. The modern salesman is a well educated, neatly dressed gentleman who knows all about the goods he sells. He is never called upon to drink, he never needs to dine out, he trades on honor and brains, and his customers are men who only admire men who know as much as or more than they do about their business.
Dress plays the most important part in the game of commerce, no less with the salesman than it does with the manufacturer, the mill man, the banker or the financial man. They all dress to impress their fellow men favorably.
—C. M. Connolly in Success.

Got the Oysters.

A captain of a Massachusetts regiment, stationed in Washington at the time of the civil war, was noted for his love of good things to eat and one day dispatched one of his soldiers, a man named Bailey, to Alexandria to get some fresh oysters, giving him instructions not to return without them. The man started, and no more was seen of him for nine days. The Washington Times prints the story of his return:

After a lapse of nine days Bailey came into camp leading a train of four horse wagons, loaded with oysters.
Approaching and respectfully saluting the amazed captain, Bailey said:

"Here are your oysters, captain.
Couldn't find any in Alexandria, so I chartered a schooner and made a voyage to Fortress Monroe and Norfolk for them. There are about 200 bushels.
Where do you want 'em?"

Bailey did really make the trip, hired his men and sold oysters enough in Georgetown before "reporting" to pay all expenses and leave him a profit of about $100. The 200 bushels were divided among the members of the regiment, and Bailey returned to his duty.

Paper Making and the Egyptians.

The art of paper making is almost prehistoric. It is believed that the Egyptians invented the first crude process. This is shown in the name itself, which is derived from the word papyrus, a reed which grows in Egypt and other warm countries.

The ancient Egyptians made their primitive paper from this plant by taking the smooth, fibrous layer between the rough outer bark and the inner flesh of the reed. This they dried and glued together in long rolls, which served as a means to convey their thoughts in hieroglyphics. This process has been so improved upon during the succeeding ages that today the most perfect paper can be made from the meanest substances.

Home Treatment.

In Ohio, as in several other states, persons condemned to death are taken to the state capital for execution.
Recently in the Greene county court a jury was being chosen to try a murder case.

One member of the panel had been asked the usual questions and had given satisfactory answers until the lawyer for the defense inquired:

"Do you believe in capital punishment?"
"No, sir," was the prompt reply: "I believe in hanging them right here at home."—What to Eat.

Caged Birds Live Longest.

Many people declaim against the cruelty of keeping birds in cages, but it is a well proved truth that cage birds live about six times as long as a wild bird, and the bird invariably becomes so fond of its owner and its surroundings that when the cage is thrown open it will not fly away. It suffers so little from solitude that if a prospective mate is introduced it hits her on the head at first for her impudence in daring to intrude into a private apartment.

Bird Superstitions.

According to a superstition which holds sway in some parts of Ireland, the sedge warblers possess the souls of unbaptized babes and sing their sorrow at the midnight hour, while the linnet, yellow hammer and finch sing their plaintive and tender songs to remind us they are souls of departed friends not yet relieved from purgatorial pains. The bittern is their herald at night.—Irish Times.

A Sermon on Money.

"No, my son," said the Billville parent, "money doesn't bring happiness.
It only pays house rent and the grocery bill and makes the bailiff and the bill collector respect us six days in the week while the parson gives us the halleluia smile on Sunday."—Atlanta Constitution.

Mistaken for a Burglar.

St. Albans, Vt., May 13.—T. A. Sum-merskill of this city, superintendent of motive power of the Vermont railway has been shot and seriously wounded in a mistake for a burglar.
Mr. Summerskill had discovered a burglar in his house and called for assistance. Harry Hall, son of Col. A.
Hall, responded. In the darkness each mistook the other for the robber.
Summerskill attacked Hall with a club, and the latter fired, seriously but not fatally wounding Summerskill.
The burglar escaped.

Maloney Made a Marquis.

Rome, May 14.—Cardinal Satolla recently applied to the pope to confer the title of nobility on Martin Maloney of Philadelphia, because of his large church offerings and efforts to further Catholicism, and pontiff issued a brief creating Mr. Maloney marquis.

Trampled to Death.

New York, May 13.—Edward de Rosa, seven years of age, is dead at his home from injuries received by being knocked down and trampled on by boys in the street.

HIS PRIZE ROSES.

A Little Secret That Was Confided to the Wrong Man.

An amusing incident is reported in connection with a small flower show in the north of England. One of the classes—cut roses—was open only to cottage gardeners within a certain radius, and the winner turned up in a laborer whom we will call Sandy. The lucky individual was in high feather and hung about near his exhibit all the afternoon receiving the congratulations of his friends.

"Beautiful roses," remarked a well dressed stranger to Sandy. "They tell me, however, that if Briggs had been qualified to enter he would have beaten you."

Now, Briggs was the rose grower par excellence in the neighborhood; but, unfortunately for him, he was just outside the radius.

"Briggs be hanged!" ejaculated Sandy. "He ain't got no better roses than them!"

"That's nonsense!" retorted the stranger. "Briggs' roses are the talk of the district."

Sandy still stuck to his point and became quite confidential. "Between you and me," he whispered eventually,
"Briggs ain't got no better roses than them. 'cos them's his! He couldn't enter himself, so he gave me the pick of his garden."

The stranger was satisfied, and it was only afterward that Sandy discovered to his cost that he had confided his secret to a member of the show committee.—London Times.
